

Friday Programming

You're Here. Now what?

Olympic 2, 12pm

This panel is for first-time con goers; it will answer what a con is, what this con is about, and reassuring you that everything will be just fine.

Open Craft Time

Cascade 1, 12pm-2pm

Come start a project! We have supplies. Come create almost anything except a working Dalek. Children must be supervised.

Key Classics for Recent Fans: The Essential Classic Doctor Who Cascade 9, 12pm

We will discuss 1-3 stories from each of the Classic Doctor eras that are rich with information referenced in New Who. Not necessarily 'the best' stories, but the ones that continue to influence the show today.

Story Arc and Mechanics

Olympic 2, 1pm

Flash, short fiction, novellas, novels... all have different arcs and what's called the fail/fail, fail/succeed methods. Not only are there story arcs, but character arcs as well. If set up properly, your characters will grow and learn at the perfect times. To create these arcs, we need a clear understanding of our beginning, middle, and end. Listen to our speakers share their tools for creating a successful story that moves at a good pace and keeps readers engaged.

Why and What do People Collect?-Part 1 Cascade 2, 1pm

Why do people collect fannish collectibles? What do people collect? Come ask questions and learn about this hobby.

"No, Not the Mind Probe!": the Quest for the Very Worst Doctor Who Story Thus Far Cascade 9, 1pm

Filmmaker Panel #1 Cascade 10, 1pm

Black Mirror*: Too Much or Just Enough Olympic 2, 2pm

Black Mirror has been described as Twilight Zone's darker, edgier twin from across the pond. Its first episode deals with bestiality, politics, and the media - and it only intensifies from there. Does the show push the boundaries just enough or does it go too far? Join us as we discuss >>>> the intricacies of developing media that goes just far enough and how Black Mirror could teach Hollywood a trick or two.

Stop Motion Animation for Whovians Cascade 1, 2pm-4pm

Learn stop-motion animation using free apps you can download to any smart device. Bring a device to create your own stop-motion film during class. Bring your British items or use some on hand to be your set and characters.

Just a Minute Panel Game Show Cascade 2, 2pm

This is our version of the long time BBC Radio 4 Panel Game show, 50 years old this year. Panelists are asked to speak for one minute on the given subject without hesitation, repetition or deviation. Other panelists can challenge the speaker. Trivia Note: David Tennant was a panelist a couple years ago and did quite well. Panelists will be taken from the audience as well as those who agreed to play in advance.

The State of the Whoniverse

Cascade 9, 2pm

Get caught up on the latest developments in the Doctor Who universe. With a new show runner and Doctor coming up, this could be a good one.

KBTC Program Previews

Grand 2, 2pm

Join us for video previews and conversation about current and upcoming British programs that you will see on KBTC in 2018.

Fanfic for the Family Olympic 2, 3pm

Interactive family friendly fan-fiction conversation.

Steampunk 101 Cascade 2, 3pm

What is Steampunk? Where did it come from? We will answer those questions, explore the literary roots of the genre, and discuss its current popularity.

Hammer Films Cascade 9, 3pm

The Hammer influence on horror in British media.

Your Story Looks Great, Now What? Olympic 2, 4pm

After your story is complete and edited, what comes next? An agent? Small press? Big press? Self-publishing? Submit to an anthology? Learn what steps to take and where to find resources for proper formatting. A query, synopsis, and cover letter are all different. Know what your editor wants, and your chances of being picked up increase instantly!

Open Crafting Cascade 1, 4pm-6pm

We have the supplies. You can create almost anything except a moving Dalek. Children must be supervised.

The Best British Shows You're Not Watching Cascade 2, 4pm

There are so many shows - and not a lot of ways to know about them. Take a look at what is on Acorn and Britbox.

How Do You Solve a Problem Like Clara? Cascade 9, 4pm

We had the Girl Who Waited... and then Clara, the Impossible Girl. Is she just another catch-phrase companion with a crush on the Doctor? Another Moffat Mary Sue? Or, is she a companion holding her own against the feisty Doctor? Join us as we discuss what we love and love to hate about this companion.

In Defense Of... Grand 2, 4pm

Taken from the Verity podcast, one of us picks a topic of derision in Doctor Who (the sixth Doctor's coat, for instance) and the other one must defend it for a certain amount of time.

Q&A: Meet Bentley the PoorCorgiActor

Grand 3, 4pm-4:30pm

Bentley will do some tricks and answer questions.

Opening Ceremonies

Grand 3, 5pm

Building Dynamic Characters

Olympic 2, 6pm

Characters are vital to any story, and yet they can be so difficult to create. Characters need balance, just like us. They need strengths, weaknesses, areas of confidence and self-doubt - our characters need flaws. But not too many. Readers need to be able to relate to characters so they can grow with them as the story progresses. Listen to authors share how they work with their characters to make them worthy of touching our hearts.

Doctor Frankenstuffies

Cascade 1, 6pm-8pm

Need we explain? Space is limited. All ages welcome. Bring the stuffies you don't want anymore. Children must be supervised.

Poldark from the 70s to Now

Cascade 2, 6pm

Let us look at new Poldark and the original Poldark series from the 70s.

Why Aren't You Watching Blake's 7 and Red Dwarf? Cascade 2, 7pm

This is a primer on these classic shows that appeal to fans of Doctor Who.

Friends of Bill W

Cascade 9, 7pm- 9pm

Friday Night Dance: Days of Future Past Grand 3, 8pm-1am

Come dance to the best dance music from the 1970s to today. You'll hear some old favorites, some songs you might have forgotten, and some new tunes you'll love.

Karaoke (with puppet optional)

Grand 2, 8pm-10pm

Come sing to your favorite tunes. Use a puppet if you are adventurous.

Saturday Programming

Prompt, Write, Submit! Olympic 2, 10am

In this workshop, you'll be given a writing flash prompt (under 1K words) by pros and write! As the hour wraps, the pros will assist with places to submit flash fiction.

Knitting Group-

Cascade 1 10am-11:30am

Knit the 5th Doctor's celery or start a stranded version of the 7th Doctor vest pattern. Or, bring your current project and knit with us!

Reboots, Revivals, and Reiterations Cascade 2, 10am

In recent years, many dormant properties have found new life. What do the updates to Sherlock Holmes, Doctor Who, and others say about changes in our culture? Come discuss the successes and failures of attempts to breathe new life into old canons!

The Originals, You Might Say: the Earliest Companions

Cascade 9, 10am

Discussing the Hartnell-era companions and their stories, their audio and book adventures, and (in some cases) their upcoming re-casting.

Dalek Building Grand 2, 10am

Mark Dando; Charlie Logan and his Dalek Rainier; Mark York, Brian Cox; Kathy Bergh; Mike Harper with his daughter, Cameren, and their Dalek Cas; Shaylee Bell with Dalek Clara, Dalek Dale, and in progress Dalek Abbie. No one expects the Dalek Inquisition!

King Arthur: From Le Morte d'Arthur to King Arthur Olympic 2, 11am

Legend of the Sword, the Arthurian legend in literature and cinema through the years. Subtitle could be: The Good, The Bad, and The Stinkers.

Collecting: Collectible Roadshow-Part 2 Cascade 2, 11am

Bring in your collectibles and discover their worth.

Q&A: Meet Bentley the PoorCorgiActor Grand 3, 11am-11:30am

Bentley (and maybe his sister) will do some tricks and answer questions.

Writing Workshops and Critique Groups Olympic 2, 12pm

While critique groups and workshops can help a writer reach the next level of their career, knowing what kind is best for you can be hard. Genre, a good mix of authors and career levels, knowing what advice to take and what to toss - these are all vital to gaining the most from yours. Listen and learn as pros share their stories.

English Paper Piecing or Mosaic Patchwork Cascade 1, 12pm-2pm

English paper piecing is a quilting technique using paper templates as fabric stabilizers to ensure accuracy when hand sewing complex angles in intricate patterns. I have instructions, scraps and supplies, just come play with fabric.

Collectible Donation Collection-Part 3 Cascade 2, 12pm

Donate your unwanted collectibles for our Charity Auction during this session.

Friends of Bill W Cascade 9, 12pm

Q&A: Sylvester McCoy

Grand 3, 12pm

You Did Something Creative, Now What? Olympic 2, 1pm

You're a creator - you made something wonderful! So now what? Panel will include writing (short and long-form) and all forms of creativity. >>>

Dub Of The Doctor- Grand 2 , 1pm

Our moderator chose select clips from Doctor Who episodes, related shows, or just any British show at all... and we play the clips back without sound, while our panel thinks up funny things to "dub" over the original audio.

Filmmaking Panel Cascade 10, 1pm

What does it take to make a film? Come pick our brains about the current nature of filmmaking.

Q&A: Peter Davison Grand 3, 1pm

Social Media for Authors!

Olympic 2, 2pm

Nowadays, many authors have a platform on social media before they make it as a writer. But what kinds of things are important? Does branding matter? What works and what doesn't? Pros will share their experiences with social media, and how you can work these platforms to your advantage.

Young Fans and What They Think Cascade 2, 2pm

Hear what our young fans think of these shows and fandoms. Ask questions of our young friends. All youth are welcome to join.

David Tennant: Serious, Creepy and Everything In-Between

Cascade 9, 2pm

Besides playing The Doctor, he's played a Death-Eater in Harry Potter, a detective inspector in Broadchurch, and a psychotic mind-controller in Jessica Jones. Is there anything this man can't do? Join us as we talk about Tennant's various roles and speculate where we'd like to see him go next.

Sherlock Holmes in Every Incarnation Olympic 2, 3pm

Beads, Beads and Beads

Cascade 1, 3pm-5pm

What can you create with beads? Let your imagination flow.

Costume Touch-up Hour

Cascade 2, 3pm

One hour before the Cosplay Contest the room will be open for those last minute repairs.

The History of The Master

Cascade 9, 3pm

The First Female Doctor Screening and Q&A Grand 2, 3pm

First public showing of these 30 year old fan films since the 1980s.

Q&A: The Doctors Grand 3, 3pm

Self-Publishing 101 Olympic 2, 4pm

Should you self-publish your work? Stick to traditional publishing? What are the pros, cons, and options of each?

British Radio Drama and Comedy Cascade 2, 4pm

Radio never went out of fashion as a dramatic medium in the UK. Come enthuse about your favorites from the dawn of the wireless to the present day.

Why Aren't You Watching: Reconstructions? Cascade 9, 4pm

Thanks to Loose Cannon, the Butterfly Effect, and the heroic efforts of others, it is now possible to "see" every single Doctor Who story ever made (after a fashion). Some examples to be shown are from the animated 'Power' and other 'official' efforts to the 'unofficial' ones, like the colour "Marco Polo" and CGI-heavy "Wheel in Space."

Costume Contest Pre-judging

Grand 3, 4pm

It's time to Meet the Muppets on The Muppet Show tonight! Olympic 2, 5pm

Britain teamed up with a young Jim Henson and birthed "The Muppet Show" when no studio was willing to take a chance on these now-beloved puppets. Lord Lew Grade >>> executive-produced the show. After that England partnered with The Jim Henson Company on many more projects. Come learn how the Muppets began.

Open Crafting

Cascade 1, 5pm-7pm

We have the supplies. You can create almost anything except a live Dalek. Children must be supervised.

Your Podcast and You

Cascade 2, 5pm

Whether you made a podcast, want to make one, or just listen to them – here are tips, tricks, best practices and outstanding podcasts you can learn from.

All Things British: Current Goings On in the UK Cascade 9, 5pm

All British TV, British politics, British history, British pop culture. All the time.

Advance Dalek Building Grand 2, 5pm

Costume Contest Grand 3, 6pm-8pm

(Note: Pre-Judging at 4pm)

(Prepare to get wrapped up in the Looooongest Doctor 4 Scarf.)

LARP Murder At Anglicon for Grown Ups Cascade 2, 8pm-10pm >>>

Live Action Role-Playing Murder At Anglicon. Come role-play a character. Act out a story. Or solve a murder.

Friends of Bill W Cascade 9, 8pm

Open Filking

Grand 2, 8:30pm-12:30am

Filk till you flop over!

Saturday Night Dance: Back to the Future!- Cascade 2- 8:30pm-12am

A certified fresh blend of the absolute best dance songs of the 80s. All of your favorites, with some special extended mixes thrown in just for fun. Guaranteed to be just like you would have heard at a club in the mid 80s.

Sunday Programming

Banquet Grand 2, 9am-11am

Breakfast Banquet. Ticketed Event.

Doctor Who and Harry Potter

Cross-overs Olympic 2, 10am

Learn about the Harry Potter and Doctor Who crossover actors.

Fashion Designers Needed

Cascade 1, 10am

A woman Doctor? Design, sketch and discuss the new Doctor's outfit. Open to all ages. Designs will be displayed and anyone can vote for their favorite.

Thirteen: Should the Doctor Be a Woman? Cascade 2, 10am

Change is coming! As the Doctor regenerates, we get our first female Doctor and a new show runner, both from Broadchurch. Join us as we discuss these changes, what we hope to see in the future, and whether Broadchurch's style and feel will influence the show moving forward. (A look back at the history of the idea of the Doctor as a woman, issues and reaction to Jodie Whittaker's casting, and other baggage.)

Whose Line is it Anyway?

Cascade 9, 10am- 12pm

Who's Line Is It Anyway is a short-form improvisational comedy show that started as a popular British radio program, before moving to British television in 1988. Past hosts include Clive Anderson, Drew Carey, Aisha Tyler and now for you here at Anglicon, Andy Wolf! Come play with us! Get up on stage and learn by doing! Will you master Questions? Party Quirks? One Word Story? Genres? Let's play together!

Friends of Bill W Olympic 2, 11am

How to Speak Queen's English Cascade 2, 11am

This is a continuation or add-on, as one might say, of learning the ways of speaking English and the different dialects involved

Skype Chat with Brian Johnson Grand 3, 11am- 12:30pm

Mermaid Headbands
Cascade 1, 11:30am

Create your own unique headband that any mermaid would admire with shells and beads.

Graduation Day for Women in Doctor Who Cascade 9, 12pm

From companions to The Doctor, women have graduated in the Whovian Universe. Join us as we talk about our favorite companions, our new Doctor, and how it feels to see dreams become reality.

Charity Auction Grand 2, 12pm-3pm

Open-Mic Fanthorpe Reading Olympic 2, 1pm

Before he became a British TV personality, Robert Lionel Fanthorpe was a pulp sci-fi writer, churning out books at an incredible pace in an infamously terrible prose style - which entertains fans of bad writing to this day. Bring passages to share or >>> just sit back, learn about his career, and enjoy what the Encyclopedia of SF calls "a particularly dire form of oral poetry."

Whovian Cards,Ornaments, Bags, Tags and Wrapping Paper
Cascade 1, 1pm

Make holiday greeting cards, paper ornaments, gift bags, gift tags, or wrapping paper using stamps and other items. Learn to make your own stamps. For our younger Whovian artists. Children under 12 must be supervised.

QI: Quite Interesting Cascade 2, 1pm

Are you Quite Interesting? Perhaps a fan of the game show? Join us and our fabulous contestants for our third round of the game here at Anglicon.

Seventh Day Advent Hoppist Revival Meeting Grand 3, 1pm

Based on a Red Dwarf bit, where Rimmer claims his parents were "7th Day Advent Hoppists" - their bible had a misprint, so they HOPPED everywhere!

Open Crafting Cascade 1, 2pm

We have the supplies. You can create almost anything except a working Cyberman. Children must be supervised.

The Hitchhiker's Guide to Doctor Who Cascade 2, 2pm

Let us look at the history of Douglas Adams' involvement with Doctor Who and his contributions to the show, including quotes and anecdotes from my printed interviews with Adams (as seen in DWM and his unofficial bio).

Traveling in the UK Cascade 9, 2pm

Hoping to visit the UK someday? Looking to plan a trip? In this panel, people who have traveled 'across the pond' share their tips and recommendations.

Q&A: Day of the Doctors

Grand 3, 2:30pm

SWOC Meeting Olympic 2, 3pm

Closing Ceremonies Grand 3, 4pm

Thank you for a wonderful trip in the TARDIS. See you next year!

THE TARDIS IS CLOSED

-

Onions and Roses Cascade 9, 5pm

What did you enjoy? What would you like to see happen in the future? What made your nose hairs curl and you want to be different?